Board automation which needed change.

Thomas Cook (India) Limited Company Secretary and Compliance Officer Amit Parekh shared his experience using a prior board meeting solution, "We were using another paperless meeting application since 2016, which did not have all the features we required".

Amit stated they adapted a board meeting solution having experienced challenges in the pre, during and post-meeting preparation with papers. While the solution was able to address paper meeting challenges Thomas Cook (India) Limited required a more secure and efficient board meeting solution.

Better features over the previously used solution

In 2019, after meticulous evaluations, Thomas Cook (India) Limited switched to BoardPAC the 1# user-friendly and highly secure board meeting automation solution for their board meeting management. Amit revealed the key reasons for the change to BoardPAC, "Trusted name and used by prominent companies in the Industry", "Easy and hassle-free usability for the secretarial team" he also stated "Better features over the previously used solution"

Amit further spoke on BoardPAC and stated, "Easy and very appealing interface for the Board members and quick assistance and redressal of any concerns relating to the application."

Better board meetings

After switching and onboarding BoardPAC to the Thomas Cook board, the secretarial team members were able to more efficiently and securely manage the pre, during and post-meeting activity.

Amit said his favourite features on BoardPAC were, "There are many useful features on BoardPAC, the use of previous meeting templates, ability to upload papers on a single click, ability to send paper and meeting alerts, an audit trail of paper views etc and many more" He concluded saying "Security and confidentiality are of prime importance for the good governance of listed entities and BoardPAC delivers on it"
